Status of the League Report

As you all know Glen Kenan was forced to resign from the FBNBA because of the illness of his wife. I did not feel we had any suitable replacement available at that time. I decided to play the Cincinnati franchise games myself. During this time I placed an ad for backups in the S-O-M Review. After all this time I have only received two requests for a questionnaire and as of this writing I have not received either questionnaire back. However there is some good news. Bill Nieman of the J & B franchise has decided that he now has time available to take over a franchise for himself. Bill will be taking over the Cincinnati franchise with the start of series ii. Jim Jalukewicz will be handling the J & B franchise himself.

Please send your series ii-14 instructions to Bill as soon as possible.

NO HITTER!!!

This just in Ron Guidry of the Grand Fuzz Cardinals has fired a No Hit/No Run game at Munson's Marauders. An indepth report will be upcoming in a future Rob Bruno report.

While we're on the subject of Rob. I would like to publically thank Rob for the great job he has done and is doing for the FBNBA this year. The last couple of years has been a trying experience for me as well as some of you, but now I feel the fun is back in the FBNBA caused mostly by Rob's work. My Gladiator cap is off to you Rob, Thanks!!.
