JAR HEAD PLAYER OF THE THE MONTH

In limited duty,Raphael "Harmon" Ramirez leads the Jar Heads in batting with a .378 average (48 for 127).

(7D, 2T, & 7 HR'S! Has his slugging ave. at .630!!!

vs. Galactic had 7 for 7 over two games.(home games)

vs. J & B Indians 3 consecutive HR'S off Jack Morris.(face/face)

JAR HEAD PITCHER OF THE MONTH

Bob Djeda pitched two shutouts. First blanking the Grand Fuzz Cardinals in a spectacular 1 hitter 12-0.(8K's) (road game) Then shutting down the Lime Sox on 6 hits for a 9-0 win. (7K's) in a face to face game.

JAR HEAD SCUTTLE BUTT: 84 GAMES

Steve Sax with 130 hits (.339 BA) has 38 more hits than closest team mate C. Lansford who has 92.

Gary Ward has 9 steals and has yet to be caught. Sax leads Jar Heads with 20 steals but he has been nailed 7 times.

Devil Doodles: Connecticut can say that relief corps have been sensational this year - Connecticut is 42-2 in games in which CT. has held lead after 7innings. Few blown games!!! Connecticut sports a modest record in 1-run games (14-11) Defense has generally been solid only 62 errors in 92 games. 34 of the errors are by 3 men (Schiffield(14),Wallach(11),Davis(9)) Three starters Mark Gubicza,Sid Fernandez,Orel Hershiser,have combined for a 26-10 record!!!(Now if Rick Rhoden can get his act together!!)

J&B Indians Notes:Lack of power has hurt Indians this season. Have been keeping games close but leaving too many men on base and losing bunch of close games. Puckett has been a disappointment hitting .270 and is projecting out to only 16 hr's for the season vs. a card of .328 and 31 hr's. He must be saving them for the September race for the pennant,so watch out N.L. East!

Pitching has been consistent with a 3.77 team ERA. May be looking to trade a lefty starter over the winter for a 1b or RF that has some power.

Just completed a face to face series with the Jarheads, losing 2 at home but winning 2 away. Highlight of the series was game 4 at the Jarheads. Rafael Ramirez hit 3 consecutive HR's (4 RBI's) off Jack Morris! But Angel Salazar countered going 4 for 4 with a triple and 3 RBI's. Who said SS's can't hit? J&B prevailed in the game with Mike Diaz doubling off the wall in the 9th to tie the game and then Diaz homered in the 11th to win it. A footnote to this story, Ramirez was to face Morris in the bottom of the 11th with the tying run on base. I chickened out and pulled Morris. Good thing I did, Ramirez would have had HR #4 with the roll that came up!

Dragon Fire:Mgr. Cope was on vacation and her highlight of her trip was a visit to Rochester's Silver Stadium for an exhibition between the Red Wings and the parent Baltimore Orioles. Before the game Debbie almost got Cal Ripken's autograph! "If he hadn't been called to the plate for the homerun hitting contest I probably would have gotten it."

Munsons Welcome: Joe Hults Mgr. of the Maruders was the host July 29th of some face to face action vs. New England & BRUNO'S. In the first game BRUNO'S defeated Munsons 5-1, behind Jim Deshaies & Ron Robinson. The winning run scored when Mike Kingery stole HOME in the second inning. (Joe couldn't believe his eyes.) In a game 2, BRUNO'S won 6-4 behind Gooden & Ferr. It took 2 runs in the top of the 9th to do it. At "New England" Munsons won both games 2-1. When New England was at Munsons, N.E. lost the 1st game (yep) 2-1. Mgr. Fogg yells at his ball club about leaving their bats back in New England! The Line Sox bounce back with a 5-2 win. As N.E. was leaving the park BRUNO'S moved in looking for a split and a 3-1 record for the day. Munsons win game 1, 7-3 after they were down 3-0. Roger Clemens pitched a complete game striking out 6. In game 2, BRUNO'S was down 7-2 after 5 innings. Mgr. Hults pulls Witt to save some innings. A fan calls out from the stands "you'll be sorry"!(Fogg from the kitchen) BRUNO'S score 2 in the 7th, one in the 8th, and in the bottom of the 9th score 1, with one out and leave the tying run on second. Mgr. Hults was very happy that Fogg's warning did not come true.

Bruce and I would like to say "thank you" to GM Alice Hults.

Alice put up with the two of us for 8, hours! The food was great. Thanks again.

Wallingford & New England make wopper (6 for 4) trade for 1988, season. Twisters get Calvin Schiraldi, Mike Loynd, Garry Templeton, Glenn Davis, Bret Saberhagen, & Kal Daniels. New England receives Tony Fernandez, Kevin Bass, John Kruk, & Kelly Downs.
