2PT'S SA. 1PT Won -2 Lost.

N. L. Hill Topper Highlights: For the first time in the history of the world, the Asylum Hilltoppers, are not on last place. After winning 2 of 3 against the arch rival Windsor Hawks at Jim Bouton, the club went north to the Nest and took 2 out of 3 again, this time featuring two game winning homers by Mike "The Wreath" Heath. Disgusted Hawk's owner Glen Boucher blamed his teams poor play on the pre-game pizza. "Not enough anchovies. How can you play without the taste of fish in your mouth?"

* Spike Owen Update: A 4 for 20 surge that included a pair of doubles and 3 RBI lifted Owens average to .120, after he had been granted the everyday shortstop job. Incumbent shortstop Raf Belliard was visibly upset, however. "This is an insult I'm a star. I've been hitting around .200 all year. I want out of here now." GM and Owner-for-life Klee wasn't moved by Belliard's outburst. "We thought he was doing very well guarding the Gatorade during games."

* The Hilltoppers AAA affiliate, the Dayton Ducks finished second to the Delaware Tubular Cardboard Salesman in a hotly contested Intercoastal League race. The Ducks were never the same after Donell Nixon was dealt to New England for a 4th round draft pick and a bag of broken bats. Nixon was hitting .431 at the time of the trade.

Roland

Mystic Holsteins recent tear of 11 straight was sparked by Dave Winfield and good solid pitching, including two shutouts on the road against the Florida Sun. Mystic pitching staff now includes 3 eighteen game winners in Clemens, Scott, and Smith. Winfield's recent explosion has jumped his batting average from .308 to .325 and RBI from 82 to 108 in the last 30 games.

While the ball club has been hot on the field, Mystic's front office has been wheeling and dealing, trading no fewer than 9 players and its #1, #2, #3 draft choice. New additions to the '90 Mystic squad will be J. Leonard, G. Wilson, J. Clark, J. Ray, P. Tabler, C. Washington and pitchers J. Smiley and D. Mahorsic. Manager Hap Azzard says he will be sorry to see the following veterans depart: K. Daniels, G. Davis, G. Young, P. Smith, J. Treadway, J. Orsulak, M. Young, D. Hamilton and M. MacFarlane. In these trades Mystic also acquired what will likely be the #1 choice in the first and third rounds in next years draft.

Ed

Devil Doodles The Blue Devils have been treading water recently in the heated pennant race in the NL West. The former 2nd place Lime Sox won 4 of 6 against Connecticut including a 13-0 win at Blue Devil Stadium getting 10 hits and 11 runs in 5 innings against Bobby Witt! The most heartbreaking loss came in New England. The Blue Devils led 5-3 going into the bottom of the ninth with Dan Plesac on the mound. 2 straight hits chased Plesac, Mike Jackson came in and walked Rob Deer to load the bases. Supposed "ace" Mike Henneman entered and gave up a sac fly and RBI grounder to tie game. Then old man Don Baylor hit a 2 run HR to win game and send the Lime Sox into first place in the NL West!!!

The Blue Devils then went 3-3 vs Asylum Hilltoppers in a series featuring a 17 inning, 13 inning and 11 inning extra - inning games!!! Connecticut out hit Asylum 61-49 in the 6 games but outscored them only 24-21. No clutch hitting I guess!!

Devil Trade Talk: Manager Lou Piniella and GM Dave Gineo have been disappointed with the pitching of Dan Plesac. Plesac is 5-7 with only 9 saves and a 4.44 ERA giving up 8 HR's in 51 innings!! He is on the trade block now that rookie southpaw Norm Charlton is pitching well (3-1 2.23 ERA in 5 starts). Plesac can be had for a low 1st round - high 2nd round draft pick. Also, CT has a surplus of good right-handed relievers so one can go. Other players rumored to be on the trade block are Jeff Ballard, Paul Kilgus, Ernie Riles, Mitch Webster, Tim Flannery and Narvell Wynne.

son? The Hilltoppers caught fire and have now won 19 of their last 31 games, a .613 pace. Most significant is that Asylum Hill is playing well against its toughest intradivisional competition - Connecticut, Willimantic and Windsor, taking 10 of 18 games. Six games against NewEngland will close out the season. The "Klee Must Flee" chants have all but disappeared at Jim Bouton Field during the closing weeks of the season.

* Spide Owen Update - A good part of the Hilltoppers year end success can be attributed to the surge of Spike Owen who was handed the everyday shortstop job after Rafael Belliard failed to meet expectations. With his average now safely on the Interstate at .127, Owen has, in approximately the same number of at bats, exceeded Belliard in virtually every offensive category. Accordingly, Belliard has demanded a trade to "someone who can appreciate my talents". Ground crew chief George Toga indicated that the Hilltoppers would try to accommodate him.

GM and Owner-for-Life Klee held a press conference to announce a change in the team's name to Klee's Klubbers effective January 1st. " We no longer play on Asylum Hill and I thought it was important to show the fans how important I am," remarked the heir to the Klee Tiddly Wink fortune.
