NINER NOTES: The 89ers have released or traded 15 players from last years team. New manager Bill Holowaty gives 89ers a touch of class as they build. The 89ers have loaded up on young pitchers and hired Bill Holowaty, who's seen plenty of fine pitching at ECSC.

The 89ers believe they've assembled a core of live arms that will keep getting better. Old pro Jim Deshaies will lead the staff. Gone is Dwight Gooden and in his place the 89ers drafted Ramon Martinez, Greg Harris and Greg Hibbard as the arms of the future. Veterans Oil Can Boyd, Floyd Youmans and Ron Robinson are all hopefull for come backs. The staff finished next to last in the National League in ERA at 4.11 in 1989.

The 89ers will probably lead the league in incomple games. Those incomplete contests will give Dwane Ward and Les Lancaster the opportunity to break the 89er record for appearences set last year by Ward. Also in the pen the Niners will be counting on Gene Nelson, Steve Farr and Steve Rosenberg, who came over from the Chiefs.

There are still exciting young arms in the 89er farm system. Clint Zavaras who struct out 31 in 52 innings & Mike Dunne were among the Pacific Cosat League leaders in wins and ERA, merting a crack at the roation. Plus Ed Nunez will have the opportunity to provide bullpen help. Also, Jeff Bittiger and Marvin Freeman may only be one year away from the FBN.

Outlook: Things may get worse on Allyn Street before they get better. The pitching possibilities are interesting, not yet overwhelming.

MINUS BONUS POINTS for this report: Mystic -1BP (one day late to both NLP & Commissioner) PC - 1BP no team names on roster.

I would like to thank Steve for his letter but only one manager called for a revote. So, we will use the "steal" & "out of position" rules that where voted in on Draft Day.

I hope everyone see's the advanage of the -BP forgiveness rule. With the new rule a manager can make one or two errors during the season get 1 or 2 -BP's finish the season in good shape and have the -BP's DROPPED! (How about that!)

Welcome, Rick Blount, back-up manager from 13420 Holly Park Dr., Houston, TX.
77015. Rick is 32, sells for State Farm and has been playing SOM for 14 years. He has played in the National Texas League which is half face to face & half PBM. He is in a face to face league noe that plays twice a month in Houston. Last year he was in 3 face to face leagues and was World Champion in the NTL & finished 2nd place in his other two leagues. Rick played nine years in the NTL.
