COMMISSIONER'S MESSAGE: RE: Trades including players to be named later.

The trade I made involving Cory Sydner has brought about a very interesting question. Steve Walters asked: What if a noncontender traded quality players to a contender, for the same players to be named later, just for a penant drive? Would this be fair? The answer is obvious, it would not be fair or right but, it would be legal by our Constitution.

After talking to Mike and Dave we have decided to prevent something like this from happening in the future. The Constitution will be amended at the end of this season to read: A player cannot be named as the player to be named later in a trade for himself; even if other players and draft picks are included. Or, it will remain legal and we will leave it up to the Trade Committee to review. We will vote on this in November. (Trade Committee?)

Steve Walters was also talking to Mike about the old Trade Committee that the FBN had in the past. Mike asked me about reviving the old trade committee to prevent unfair deals. I called Dave and he thought it was a great idea. The Trade Committee is now again a part of the FBN. Effect with this newsletter. This is how it will work: The Trade Committee will be the commissioner and both league president's. On all trades a trade slip is mail to the Commissioner. The Commissioner will call both League President's to review the trade before it can be finalized. (If a member of the committee is involved in a trade a neutral league member will take his place on the committee.) The trade could be voided if the Trade Committee feels that the trade would hurt the FBN. If a trade is voided the Commissioner will call the managers involved. The managers may appeal the decision to the committee for a second time with their reason for why the trade sould be accepted.

Before you get upset think about this... for the 15 months that Vermont was in the FBN he made the worst trades in FBN. After he gave away his team what did he do? He bailed out of a sinking ship. Another recent case was Wash ington. He destoried his ballclub racked up a ton of -BP's and left the FBN. Both new managers had little to nothing to work with. We donot want that to happen again. Remember, we are working for the best interest of the FBNBA and for you. Your comments are always welcomed.

Minor League News: Don Slaught and Storm Davis have been recalled by Baton Rouge. Demoted were Huisman and Wilkinson. Others in the minors are Valle, Parent, Aldrete, Aquayo, Quintana, Darling and Carman. The Psychic's have also made some roster changes sending Hill, Holton, Leach, McGee, Johnson, Sanderson, Guante, Lusader and Cecil(wait 'til next year) Fieler down to the FBN Minors. Finally, Allyn Street recalled Martinez, Hibbard and Boyd while demoting Berroa, Gwynn and Dunne.

FROM THE BALLPARK: The ALW leads the minors with a 4-2 record. Next tied at 3-3 are the ALE and the NLE. In last place is the NLW at 2-4. But, after dropping there first four the NLW have won two in a row. There first win was against the previously undefeated ALW. The game was called after 7 innings because of rain. Boddicker was the winning pitcher while Robinson took the loss. Next, the NLW beat the ALE in a 3-2 12 inning cliff hanger. The winning run came on Kittles two out homerun. Smithson got the win in relief while Plunk took the loss.

Management Change. Deb Cope has resigned from the FBN for health reason's.
 +++++ She has decided to give up her Dragons and just relax. She was up to date on everything and has left the Dragons in great shape for the new management. I wish Deb well and I'm sure we'll see her again in the Re-view someday.

New owner Ralph Billings from Melbourne FL. has taken over the Dragons. He will change the team name NEXT YEAR to the Renegades. For the remainder of this year the team name and ballpark will remain as it was with Deb Cope.

NOTES FROM THE NEST: The Windsor Hawks will be filing a defamation of character suit with the league office in response to R. Klee's slanderous comments made in previous newsletters.

Its apparent that the self and publicly proclaimed "Owner and Idiot for Life" has been sniffing large quantities of airplane glue. It is well known that this substance can cause brain damage. Klee can ill afford to kill off his few remaining brain cells.

The Hawks have also asked the league office for one of the Klubber's draft picks. This action was brought about when Klee's pet sheep ate some of GM Boucher's S-O-M cards during the first meeting of the year between the clubs.

Meanwhile in a recent public appearance at Hartford's Bushnell Park, Klee delivered a state-of-the-Klubbers speech. The two onlookers, who were residents of the park, were not very impressed with Klee's rhetoric! The highlight of the speech came when Klee stated he will not bathe until the Klubbers have reached first place in the NL West. Its a sure bet that Klee's water bill will be quite low this summer!!!!

CHIEFS CHAT: In his last 8 games, Joe Carter has walloped 7 HR's & 21 RBI's bringing his season total to 28 HR's 73 RBI's in just 82 games. Glenn Davis is right up there also batting .328 with 26 HR'S and 70 RBI's. Rob Deer reached his 100th strikeout in his 76th game but he does have 24 HR's and 52 RBI's!

PEQUOT POINTS: Kirby Puckett has hit into 24 doubleplays in 320 AB's which is on a 50 DP pace for the season!!! The Pequot's leading platoon players are Mitch Webster .361 avg vs. LHP and Dave Bergman .339 avg vs. RHP

Baton Rouge--How about including team batting average and team ERA? Everyone should have that stat and it would be interesting.

Dragons--New Owner

Florida--We are still looking for starting pitching.

From the President

Another Editorial--Making Trades

In the last newsletter a trade was made for a draft pick and a player to be named later. That player was the same player traded. I have no doubt that the trade was made in good faith and was in accordance with our constitution. This trade amounts to 'renting' a player.

However this precedent could lead to someone making unscrupulous deals to destroy the league balance. For example, team A is out of the playoff picture, it trades 4 of its best players to team B which is still in the playoff race. All players named are to be returned to their original teams after the season. Team B with the addition of 4 star players now has unfair advantage in its division.

Hence I propose that any trade made cannot include a player to be named as one of the traded players.

On another front I have seen owners make poor trade in a period of time just before their leaving the league. Teams have run up a lot of -BF's, made bad trades, lost many games, and then quit.

I suggest that any team making a trade while they have a significant number of -BF's be limited. Their trades would have to be approved by the commissioner. If he feels the trade is not fair or in the best interest of one of the teams, he could nullify the trade. If either team disagrees with his decision they would have time to present their case to the commissioner. If there is a legitimate reason for the trade it could be decided on upon by a panel appointed by the commissioner.

My concern is not to limit trades whether they be good or bad, but to prevent the stripping of a team. It makes it tough on a new owner to take over a team that has no good players or draft picks.

Welcome to the new owner of the Dragons. I talked with him today and he seems to be very organized and ready to take on the older franchises in this league. So watch out!!!

We talked about some trades, and nothing has happened as of yet. In the background I heard voices. It sounded like the voice of George Steinbrenner. Could it be that we are being infiltrated by big money? Is this just a place to launder 'Yankee' money? I wonder. Perhaps we can hear a rebuttal from Rich on this matter.

Steinbrenner fires a major league manager and replaces him with a AAA manager. No wonder since his team is no better than a minor league team. How long before we hear 'Bump the Stump'?
