Baton Rouge--

Dragons--Van Slyke and Brunansky solidify outfield for next year; while the additions of Kirk McCaskill and Scott Garrelts will form the foundation on which the pitching staff will be built.

Florida--The Sun make a summer surge, with a 21-9 streak after being 50-50 after 100 games.

Galactic--

Hazardville--Powderkeg fans have been seen throwing matches onto the field hoping to ignite the hapless Kegs. Rey Quinones lit one of the matches and destroyed the Kegs bat rack. Batting coach Luis Mendoza quipped that the broken bats might help the Kegs woeful hitting.

Lake Wobegon--

Salem--Psychic Vibes--The Psychics are tearing it up lately, going 11-3 in the last 14. Highlights include a 2 game sweep of Galactic where Psychic pitching allowed just 1 run on 8 hits for the series. Alvin Davis set the Psychic single season walk record [previously 100 by Davis last year], with number 101 on the road against Yorktown. This was done in 122 games.

TEEM--Nolan Ryan pitched his second no-hitter of the season in a 13-0 rout at Lake Wobegon. He walked 6 and struck out 12. Nolan is now 21-6 with 6 starts left in the season. Kevin Mitchell continues his romp through the league as TEEM raises its record to 82-50. Mitchell has 48 homers and could reach 60 if he doesn't run out of at bats. TEEM has been on a roll, winning 22 of 30 since Series 19.

Topeka--When someone recently asked how bad my team was, I replied by saying "Vince Coleman is my best player." This dweeb continues to lead my team in BA, SB's and runs scored. I think he's probably the most annoying player in the FBN, although after recently playing against the Klubber's Spike Owen and Baton JRouge's "Danm Asshole" Garcia, I'm not quite so sure about that.

Yorktown--Admiral Notes--

Notes from the President

Vacation was great, but as usual it is good to be home. The Sun North American Tour included a stop in Cleveland with host Jeff Merklin to see a 'real' baseball game. [If anyone can call the Indians/Yankees real baseball] Then a stop in Canada to see not only a CFL game, but a AAA game which allowed me to scout the Calgary and Edmonton teams.

Coming back south I met Jim Ferguson for lunch. We were able to spend a couple of hours talking baseball. Jim told me of a news item that will not allow him to make the trip to participate in person for next years draft. He and his wife are expecting their first child in Feb. Congratulations to Jim and his wife. And no he will not be willing to trade this player for a number 1 draft pick.
