SIXTEEN PLAYERS GIVEN THEIR UNCONDITIONAL RELEASE BY FBN TEAMS.

NO FENCES, IS IT LEGAL!

WALL STREET WILL OPEN THE STOCKYARD IN 1999.

GM STATILE CALLS TO CHECK ON HIS WAIVER WIRE SELECTION "WOW, THE BUSIEST WAIVER ACTION WE'VE HAD IN A WHILE."

"NO WEATHER CONDITIONS AT MORPHEUS PARK AS THE WEATHER IS ALWAYS PERFECT IN THE DREAMERS HOME STADIUM." SAID GM SIMONUTTI.

school yard fences removed!

After looking over the 89ERS power numbers, GM Rob Bruno gave the order to move the team from the West Broad Street School yard to Pawcatuck Junior High School. "We could have ripped out the Principals office at West Broad to add more room to the playground. But the town already has a field we can use at Pawcatuck Junior. Its deep to all fields except right. We'll just play by the same rules as we did as kids' If you hit one out to the woods in right its not a homerun UNLESS you can beat the relay throw home." Without fences the outfielders will have to play deep not to allow a flyball to go over their head for a homerun at PJH. The 89ERS may give up move singles in 1999 but they should cut down on the number of homeruns given up. "I want Bud's hay fever to kick in everytime he just thinks about playing at the school yard, I mean at Pawcatuck Junior" said GM Bruno.

In an unrelated story the 89ERS announced today the hiring of their new field manager Joe Torre. "We need a calming force in the dugout this year and Joe's the guy, said GM Bruno. Torre will bring 89ER save leader Steve Farr in as his pitching coach. "This staff has been walking to many batters. Farr could always throw strikes and he'll get this staff straighten out fast." said Torre. "I also noticed that the 89ERS are always near the bottom of the league in homeruns hit. Our new batting coach, George Foster, will (see page 2 New field staff...)

"Its not a homerun UNLESS you beat the relay throw home!"

NOHIT-NOHIT JIM BULLINGER OF USJ...

NOHIT-NOHIT JIM BULLINGER NAMED US JARHEAD PITCHING COACH...

Author of two 1995 face to face No-hitters, Jarhead Immortal, Jim Bullinger was released from his player contract and appointed USJ Pitching Coach effective immediately. Within a space of 9 days in 1995, Nohit-Nohit twirled his way from obscurity to Jarhead hero status, and finally to becoming a Jarhead Immortal. His magic began vs the Dean of Strat Morris, with a 10-0 No-hitter, and culminated 2 starts later when he stymied and amazed Bob Mendez' Warriors in a 2-0, nail biting, repeat Nohit performance. The only 2 no-hitters in USJ's 12 year history.

Nohit-Nohit Bullinger will be inducted into the US Jarhead Hall of Fame in the W.Harry Pavillion on Opening Day March 8th. Fittingly the Jarheads opening opponents will be Mendez' Windham Warriors.

Stadium and ball-park ratings inside

Waiver continued... Life after release for three FBN players.

12. Taxachusetts waived Ernie Young and claimed Edwardo Perez.

13. Farmington waived Dave Stevens and claimed Rico Rosey.

14, 15 & 16. The USJarheads waived: Prieto, Chris Jones and Shawn Dunston to claim Marc. Valdes, Jon Zuber and Ron Mahay.

Curtis Goodwin, Greg Keagle and Shawn Dunston were all saved after being released by there former FBN teams. "There is live after death." said Shawn Dunston after he was contacted by Asst. GM Dan Bruno, of the 89ERS. "My father wanted Felix Martinez, but I told him Dunston plays for St. Louis and you owe me one since you traded Willie McGee without my permission"!

Greg Keagle was wanted by two FBN teams with the Rattlers getting in the first bite. Goodwin was the most sort after released player, wanted by five FBN teams. He was the "rock" Plymouth was looking for.
