25th
ANNIVERSARY of PBM in the
FLY-BY-NIGHT
Baseball
Association

December 01, 1999

Volume 25, Issue 19

1975-2000

Another year of fun in the FBN comes to a close.

I'd like to congratulate everyone for another great year. The league ran well because of your help.

I would like to congratulate all the playoff teams for finishing their series so timely.

A special congratulations go out to the 1999 World Series Champions Farmington Valley. Good Job!

1999 was the 25th year of the (See page 2)

The FBN World Series 1999....

(cont'ed from back page)

Series Comments:

An unbelievable final game. Hawks are down 7-2 going into the 7th. A 6 run, 3 homer explosion, seals the Hawks second title in three years.

Series MVP:

Is none other than Ken Griffey, Jr. who had 5 homers.

Final Comments:

Congratulations to Frank on a great season and fine job putting together a superb team. Furthermore,

Series MVP Griffey hitting homer #5....

thanks to all the presidents and the commissioner for their efforts in making the FBNBA a top notch league.

This is despite their collective lack of effort for not providing enough support in order to remove Klee's mangy ass from the FBNBA. The man a slight notch above his bedmate, the Demon Seed, pleeeeeeeze!!!

FBNBA Trivia: Last 4 WS winners are from the NLW (Glen, Dave, Glen, Dean).

Thanks and see/talk to you at the draft,
Glen

I will email out the results.

Please review the DRAFT ORDER!

FBN. The league was started by Dave Smith in 1974 as a face to face league. In 1975 the league expanded and started play by mail!

2000 is our 25th Anniversary of play by mail and the league is in the best shape ever! (Well maybe a few of us could lose some weight but besides that the LEAGUE is in great shape.)

Thanks to the presidents for all their help. The league has become much stronger with three heads running the league office!

I wish everyone (see backpage)

KLUBBER KLIPS

With the imminent approach of a new Millennium and a slow off-season, conspiracy theorists are abuzz over the upcoming Draft. Of particular interest is the true identity of one of the players expected to be selected in the early rounds. This player, a slugging first baseman of indeterminate age, tore through the Mexican League before lighting up the American minor leagues and making a splash with a team based in the Southwest. The power hitter goes by the name of Erubiel Durazo, but that is what intrigues those who fear one world government and make a habit of playing their records backward.

++ The American League had one extra player because of the tie between Alou and Lankford. To even the squads the next highest vote getter on the NL Boone will be added to the NL team.

It's the initials, E. D., that has sparked an interest among the black helicopter set and the entire parallels with a similar character who blazed quickly through the FBN a few years ago with much promise but little fulfillment of that promise. As one wild-eyed proponent theorized recently,

"I think it's really him. It's gotta be. No question it's Eddie Ballgame. Eddie Ballgame Williams! It's the Second Coming!"

Oh, and we hear Paul is dead.
