Commissioner Rob Bruno. Presidents - American League Ed Griffin - National League Bob Figella

Commissioners Corner:

I want to tell you all how much I appreciated the plaque you gave me yesterday. I was completely caught of guard. I'm happy that we all enjoy playing in the FBN as much as we do. It is a great league because of what each member brings to it. We have made the FBN a great league. THANK YOU!

We had 15 members at Draft Central. Mike Gerack flew in from Florida and Frank Simonutti flew in from Tennessee. Barry Shanks drove down from Maine. Rich Hamel drove in from Massachusetts and so did Ed Griffin. Dave Gineo, Bruce Fogg, Roland Klee, Dom Statile, Bob Figella, Bob Mendez, Bud Drapeau, Joe Rutka, Bill Nieman and me all from Connecticut.

I handed out the NL West Championship flag (plaque) to Owner Dom Statile. It was his second flag. Next, we hand out the World Series rings (plaque) to the Hazardville Powderkegs. Accepting the FBNBA League Flag was owner Bob Figella.

Next, Bob Mendez announced there was on additional award to present. This is when you league members awarded me the nice plaque for running the league. Again, I say thank you. And again, I say the league runs so well because of all of us.... :) But, I will display this plaque with great pride!

I hope everyone had a great time during the draft. I tried something new to break things up. We played "Let's Make A Deal" and you did seem to enjoy it. All members had their names put on cards. Each time before we played the game a name was drawn from the cards. Dave Gineo "won" a noise maker. Bill Nieman "won" a used set of "89ER" nice. The true winners at "Let's make a deal" were Dean Morris and Jim Jalutkewicz. Each will receive a $10 check in the mail (Yea, ☺ the check is in the mail!) Bob Figella on $10 of CT instant lotto tickets. Finally we had a drawing for the $30 that had not been won in "Let's Make A Deal" and that was won Bud Drapeau. Bud said something about he's glad he won now. Something about 50%??
