Commissioner Rob Bruno. Presidents - American League Ed Griffin - National League Bob Figella

I would like to thank everyone for being on time this block. I really like it when there are no –BP’s handed out. I would like to also thank everyone for sending your Won/Lost record to Ed Griffin for the website. It looks like things are running very smooth this year.

In the AL East the Psychics have a 5 game lead but three teams, the Whippets, Prairie Dogs and Silver Bullets are within a game of each other. Nice race. The AL West has the Dreamers on top with a 36-16 record. The other five teams are all 5 games within each other. Only the Bats look like they may not have a shot at the second place spot.

In the NL East the Buccaneers are in first by 2 games. But three teams behind them are within 5 games of first place with the surprising Dogfish at 27-25. The NL West Blue Devils have cast a spell on the rest of the National League with a whopping 33-15 record, best in the FBN. That leaves the defending FBN Champions Chiefs, the Kubbers and the Powerkegs fighting it out for second place.

With teams playing in divisional games this block we will see if anyone starts to pull away in the races.

Again, I can not cut and paste the leaders to the newsletter. They will be posted to the website.
