COMMISSIONERS REVIEW:

We are half way through September and some questions from the last newsletter have been answered. American League: In the East Salem has rapped up first at 102-56. Lake Wobegon will finish second. In the West it is safe to say California has rapped up first with Hart Street finishing second. But the exciting news is, will it be Lake Wobegon or Hart Street in the Wild Card Game with Yorktown? The two teams are .005 percentage points apart.

In the National League nothing has been settled yet as seven teams are still in the playoff picture. Burlington leads the East by one over Allyn Street. In the West Taxachusetts still has a one game lead over Connecticut. For the Wild Card Klee's at 84-62 lead both Hazardville and US Jarheads by five games.

These last 20 games should be.....

VERY INTERESTINGGGGGGGGGGGGGGGGG!

Next reporting date 10/01
