The Races:

The hottest team in the AL this period was New Hampshire at 6-1. That kept the Hog's in third place. Nashville was next at 8-2. The Assassins remained in 5th place. Baton Rouge went 4-1 and the Silver Bullets hold an eight game lead over second place Alpharetta. The Aces had completed the block during the last period and had not played any additional games. Milford went 6-4 and remained in 4th place. Lake Wobegon is in 6th place but just two games out of the postseason run!

In the National League New England was perfect this period going 8-0 and moved in sole possession of 4th place. US Jarheads went 5-3 and remained in first place. Hazardville went 1-1 and remained in 2nd place. Allyn Street with a 5-5 record held onto 3rd. Connecticut with a 1-2 record fell to 5th place. Klee's had finished Block 6 in the last newsletter and is just one game out of the playoff picture.

With only two blocks left in the season left to play and all 24 remaining games are league games things can chance big time. There is also just one trading period left for seasonal trades. Will someone make the trade that will make "the difference" by September 3rd? That's just 19 days away. We'll have to wait and see.

Now let's talk about Basement Bertha. She has decided as a single girl that she will play the field. She been dating Louisville for most of the season but lately, she has been seen in Taxachusetts out with the Chiefs! "On odd calendar days I'm all Tony's but on even days I'm with Bud, said Bertha. Louisville is 38-78 .328 while Taxachusetts is 39-79 .331. Louisville has the lead by percentage points but Taxachusetts has the lead in losses. This "courtship" is going to go right down to the aisle, I mean wire.
