October 1, 2017

1974 - 2017

Vol. 44, Issue 20

Commissioner Rob Bruno. Presidents - American League Jeff Merklin - National League Bob Figella

The Races:

Alpharetta went 11-1 to knock Baton Rouge out of first place in the American League. What a finish for Vic's team, a .917 winning percentage to end 107-55. Mike's Baton Rouge team finished in second place at 105-57, 2 games back. Ed's New Hampshire team finished third and Glen's Milford team fourth.

After the terrible loss of Doug Campbell, we played his Nashville Assassins by Computer Manager. With HAL calling the shots home and away the Assassins finished a very respectable 88-74 to finish in 5th place. I want to thank all the members for their help with playing the games by CM. For the playoffs the games will be managed by Jim Jalutkewicz.

In the National League Bill and Harry took the Jarheads to first place and to the best record in the FBN at 109-53. As Bill would say "Yoorah!! Allyn Street went 17-3 in the final block to overtake Bob Figella's Hazardville team for 2nd place. Hazardville ended up in third place with Bruce Fogg's New England team in 4th place. Roland's Klubbers held off Dave's Connecticut team for 5th place and the final playoff spot.

In Basement Bertha's love life Frank's California team gave it their all and matched Bud's Taxachusetts team at 50-112. Now what would BB do with two lovers? She decided to date them both! What a girl! Two minutes later she dumped Frank and went with Bud. You ask why? This is what she said to this reporter "With Bud having a Judge in his future why would I love anyone else", said Bertha.
