Vol. 47, Issue 14

Commissioner Rob Bruno. Presidents - American League Ed Griffin - National League Bob Figella

Commissioners notes: Standings, more stuff added onto your stuff. FBN Minor League standings and stats.

Hazmat bullpen puts out toxic flames in in Hotlanta

"We should have taken two," said Ernie Banks, I mean Jim Jalutkewicz. Hotlanta had to settle for a split with their series with Hazardville. "We got the Kegs bullpen to bent but we could not break them. We left the bases loaded in the 7th. In the 8th we had the tying runners on 2nd & 3rd with 1 out but could not score. Talk about frustration" Recently Hotlanta played its 12th extra inning game. "We only had 12 extra-inning games all of last year," said Jalutkewicz. "This is getting crazy!"

PERFECTION:

Tony brought the LRB to the School Yard (Stock Yard) where in GM2, Domingo German pitched a perfect game. It is the first in Barons 22, year history. WS winning 4 – 0. German had K'd 8.

Comments:

Ed Griffin: Wow! Awesome. Hogs have never had one. Mike Leake made it to 1 out in 9th.

Don Decker: Wow! Awesome, Joe!

Bill Nieman: Wow, I bet that was one exciting game for you. Sweating bullets in the 9th. Sweeeet!

Roland Klee: Tremendous. Klubbers still looking for their first no-no.

Rob Bruno: Joe great job. But, what were you doing at the School Yard? LOL You're excused. The excitement got to you :-)

Congratulations.

Joe Rutka: Missed that, thanks.

Tony Childers: What's even more amazing is he pitched the last two innings tired.

Ed: And against a very good lineup!

Milford Dogfish are on their way to make FBN history.

Will Milford set the All-Time record for wins this season? At 41-6, and with an over 87% winning percentage Glen and his Milford Dogfish are on pace to win 140 games! You think 41-6 is great? How about 23-0 on the road? And they say home cooking is the best. Do I think he'll win 140? I'm not going to bet against him, that's for sure.

Glen already owns the All-Time FBN record for Win's with 129. He set the record while in the National League in 1998 with his Farmington Valley Hawks. By the end of the season, Glen should hold the record for most win's in both the National and American Leagues. The present record in the American League is 122. That record is held by Steve Walters and his 1989, Galactic Gladiators. Glen and his Dogfish are about to chatter that record in 2020.

Steve Walters was the most dominate manager of the FBN from 1975 - 1992. Steve and his Galactic team's won an average of 101 games during that time. His worst record was 91-71 in 1980. Two years during Steve's time in the FBN there were no records of the final team standings, in 1977 and in 1986. In 1977 the FBN was going through its "Black Hole Period". Founder and Commissioner of the FBN, Dave Smith was going through a bad time. No newsletters for six months as the FBNBA was plunged into the deepest swoon in its history. Again in 1986 no final team standings. This time it was Steve, as commissioner at the time, putting the FBN through "Black Hole II." Steve goes into a swoon, not sending out a newsletter for four months.

Glen, for sure has been the most dominate manager during his time in the FBN. Glen has had two careers in the FBN. His first started in 1989, when he took over the Munson team after the first 9 series of the season. It went through the 2000 season. During his first 11 season's Glen had 7 seasons with 100 or more wins and only 1 losing season. His teams went 1122 – 660. A .629 winning percentage. After the 2000 season life happened. Glen had to take a break. He returned 6 years later in 2006. He stripped the team he inherited and rebuilt it to his liking. During his three year rebuilt he went 164-332. Some in the league may have thought Glen had become human. But, in 2009 he showed his true self again. His team was back on the winning side of the street winning 110 games. Since 2009 his teams have won 1115 and lost 667, that's a .625 winning percentage. This includes his 2014 team that went 48-114.

Steve Walters was truly the master of the FBN in its early days. Steve did have very good teams but he did have one advantage over Glen. Back in those days if you did not play face to face you played 100% of your games by written road instructions. Steve did earn his wins; I'm not saying he did not. I'm just saying that with WRI you get to see what your opponent is going to do before you have to make up your mind on what you want to do. Glen doesn't have that luxury. Glen plays less than 1% of his games by written road instructions. I believe today's members are also better managers. Even with playing less than 1% of his games by WRI and even with the tougher competition, Glen comes out on top. In my book, I have to say, Boucher is truly the master of the FBNBA.

NOTE: This is the opinion of the writer and may not be the official opinions of the FBN and or its affiliates.

A Wall Street melt down: "We visit Hotlanta and they turn up the heat to 85°," said Mgr. Earl Weaver. The heat was too much for the Barons as they dropped both games to Hotlanta.

WTF Dogfish brought their 23 - 0 road record to the Stockyard were the JV team took 2 from the varsity. Mgr, Earl Weaver, "When your team is 16 - 33 your bench sucks but I guess that's why you play 'em"

Navs avoid a "Kleebackle":

"It was a nightmare, said Mgr. John McGraw. "We were lucky to win one- for a team that depends on the long ball, we had a single "Spanky" HR". McGraw said the early bad weather isn't helping the bats. The Swamp is overflowing. (11-12 at home) But, on the road (16-8) we like HAL's cooking."

Joey Gallo Taxes the Senators:

“He doesn’t enter the game until the 6th inning. We’re down 7-2, and he knocks in 9 runs to lead the comeback,” said Joe Carter.

Escobar High:

His comments about the wins at USJ and ASt. “We just kept swinging the bats and didn't give up,' Escobar said. “If you just keep trying good things can happen!” Yorktown took 2 of 3 at USJ and sweep ASt.

Hogs turned into bacon at the DevilDome:

Connecticut enjoyed Bacon Burgers in game one as they beat New Hampshire 4-0. After holding the Hog's scoreless for 13 innings over the two games CT fell behind in game two 3-1. Double Bacon Burgers were on the line in game two. "Down 3-1 to the 9th with Hog closer Seth Lugo in the game our backs were against the wall," said Blue Devil Mgr. Don Mattingly. "But we brought home the bacon, didn't we?" CT scored 3 in the 9th for the 4-3 win.
