He didn't allow much, just 4 hits and no walks in 8 innings. Atlanta finished with 9 hits while Belmont Street ended up with 5. Josh Hader got the save, his 1st. Clayton Kershaw(0-1) was the loser. Buehler was pleased with his performance. He noted, 'I had good zip on my pitches. Just as important, my location was right on. The fans really got into the game too - that always helps me. Now, if I can only do that again in my next outing.'

Jacob Degrom carried a no-hitter into the 6th inning and Fernando Tatis Jr hit a homerun and had 4 RBI as the phenomenal Atlanta Senators bested the Belmont Street Boars 8 to 0 at Kruk Dome. Tatis Jr enjoyed a big evening at the plate. He doubled bringing in a run in the 5th inning and rifled a three-run blast in the 8th inning. Atlanta managed 11 hits in their victory. Degrom(1-0) went the distance for the shutout. The right-handed Degrom lost a no-hitter when Jacob Stallings singled with one out in the 6th inning. Drew Pomeranz(0-1) was the losing pitcher in relief. 'All of my pitches were working tonight,' Degrom said. 'I felt really good out there, and heck, I think I could have gone longer.'

Walker Buehler reeled off a total of 10 strikeouts as the indomitable Atlanta Senators topped the Belmont Street Boars by a score of 7 to 4 at Kruk Dome. Buehler(2-0) had a solid outing for Atlanta. He went 8 innings allowing 9 hits and 2 walks. Atlanta had 10 hits for the afternoon. Buehler got relief help from Art Warren who gained credit for his 1st save. Anthony Bender(0-1) was charged with the loss in relief. 'Everything felt great' Buehler said. 'I had a good fastball, I felt I could throw it by everybody today.'

Summary

Atlanta takes the series in 4 with a lot of good luck. Belmont couldn't seem to catch a big roll, with 20 runners left on base throughout the series. MVP is Yadier Molina, who hit .571 with 4 doubles driving in 5, along with great defense. To be fair, at least 2 (probably 3) of these RBIs occurred with runners scoring while Molina was promptly gunned down running for 3rd, but you gotta take the runs where you can get them.

Ed was a gentleman throughout, as always. Despite the tough rolls, Ed was kind enough to coach me through proper playoff procedure, which was appreciated. It was a pleasure playing with him! He has a great team for next season and I know he'll go far! American League beware!!!

Best,
Dante
