

THE FLY-BY-NIGHT BASEBALL ASSOCIATION

 1975 TO 1994 ***

November 2, 1994 (this is the voting issue) ISSUE 20

Commissioners Note: Congratulations to the playoff teams. Round one will have Connecticut at Port Chester, Willimantic at Farmington Valley, Florida at North Reading and Salem at Lake Wobegon. Most of these series will be played the weekend of Nov. 5th. Rich Hamel is flying to Lake Wobegon to play Jim! Also, each team needs to send me their playoff roster. No. Reading and Florida finished Round one; No. Reading won in 7 games.

Other news: Glen Boucher misused his pitching rotation during the last block of series. By doing so he used some starters giving the less than 3 days rest between starts. After talking this over with the presidents a decision was made on the penalty. Farmington's #1DP for 1995, will drop to the second round position (around the 47th place). No other action will be taken.

News about AB's and IP limits for 1995. John Lamanna published in his Baseball Bulletin the forecasted AB's and IP for each player on each team by the actual number of games played by each team. We will use these numbers plus our 10% extra as our official stats in 1995.

To help trading, send me your post season roster and draft picks that you own and I will print them in the next newsletter.

Next season changes: ALL GAMES WILL HAVE TO BE COMPLETED DURING EACH BLOCK. Postponing a FTF series form one block to another will not be allowed. The only time someone can hold off playing a series is by getting a waiver by the commissioner. I will only give a waiver if someone is going to travel like Roland on the "KLEE Express" road trip. In other words we all get the games done on time or -BP's will apply.

Secondly, everyone will have to mail the commissioner a 25 man active roster and a planned pitching rotation for each block. All the PBM members already do this and next year so will the FTF members. NO EXCEPTIONS will be allowed on this rule. -BP's will apply.

If anyone has any questions about why we are making these changes please feel free to call me. These changes have the approval of your league commissioner and both league presidents.

NATIONAL LEAGUE NEWSLETTER NOTES:

KLUBBER KLIPS - The Klubbers suffered one of their most humiliating defeats in the closing series of the season by losing five straight to the Bald Bedouins of Boucherland. It was the first time in the history of the franchise that the Klub was swept in a series of more than two games. What made matters worse was that the Klubbers were involved in an exciting pennant race they had little chance of winning but their opponents were engaged in a dogfight to the end. Rolling over like a tired dog, the Klubbers also had to endure the ceaseless taunting of GM and Owner-For-Life Klee's archrival Boucher, who had to be taken out of the stands in a butterfly net by two men in white coats. Having won 90 games and scored 900 runs for the first time, the Klub is looking forward to a thin draft carrying five picks in the first two rounds. Critics say that the draft is crucial if the Klubbers intend to contend through the remainder of the century.

Draft Day, that social event of the season in Connecticut, figures to be another big success in 1995. With the Gerack brothers committing to attendance and sounds being heard in Marysville, Urbana, and even the outpost in Idaho about coming to New England in mid-winter, another attendance record could be set. For those who cannot make it, make sure you make an effort to come in February 2000, the league's silver anniversary. Bring your spouse, girlfriend, or children along if you can't get away otherwise. But keep your animals at home; there are already enough of them running teams in this organization!!!

DEMON DORE - The Demons season is over and the transfer of power to Money, Inc. has been completed. For next year, Money Inc. will be looking to acquire a firstbaseman, secondbaseman, leftfielder, and centerfielder. Discussions have already started with a few teams. Some of the records set in 2 Demon seasons are as follows:

Andy Van Slyke - RBI - 121, Hits - 221, Doubles - 52, Triples - 20
 Eddie Murray - Home Runs 25 in 1993 Juan Samuel - Batting Avg. .421 set in 1994
 Chilli Davis - Walks 84 in 1993 Felix Jose - Stolen Bases 48 in 1994
 Andy Van Slyke - Game winning hits - tied w/Murray in 1993 with 15 and Games Played 160 from 1994 tied with Eddie Murray from 1993, AT Bats - 655 in 1993, Runs Scored - 126 from 1993 and double plays hit into from 1994 - 21.
 Scott Fletcher - HBP's 18 in '93 and sacrifices - 75 in 1993
 Eddie Murray - Errors - 23 in 1994 Felix Jose - Caught Stealing 22 in 1994

PITCHING RECORDS:
 Dennis Martinez - wins 20 in 1993, Shutouts with 5 in 1993, pickoffs with 16 in 1994 and winning percentage - 20-8 .714 in 1993
 Jack McDowell - Losses 18 in 1994, Games Started - 39 in 1994, Complete Games 20 in 1993, Innings pitched with 283 in 1994, Runs Allowed - 172 in 1994, Earned Runs Allowed with 144 in 1994, Hits Allowed with 323 in 1994 and Home Runs allowed with 41 in 1994.
 Tom Henke - Saves with 24 in 1994, Roger Mason - Relief Appearances 61 in '94
 Mike Moore - Walks allowed with 124 in 1993, Wild Pitches 36 in 1993 and errors by a pitcher 7 in 1993.
 John Smiley - Strikeouts 188 in 1993 Ken Hill - Balks 5 in 1993

We hope to shatter all records in 1995 and contend again and make the playoffs. We also will be playing in brand new ballparks for 195 with the dimensions forthcoming as well as a brand new logo. We also will be seen world wide as Mr. DiBlase has struck a deal with Ted Turner & European Television. So TBS, TNT & the Sky Channel will carry all Money, Inc. games and we will now be called America's & Europe's Team. So remember, money makes the world go round and everyone has a price for the Million Dollar Man Ted DiBlase and Money, Inc.

Dragon Droppings

Greetings from The Lair.

By the time this letter sees the inside of the FBNBA newsletter, the votes will be in and counted, and the results of our ballots will be displayed for all to see. The ownership of the Dragons is anxiously waiting for results of a number of items, especially the outfielder/all fielders out of position vote, and the limit road instructions to 2 pages vote. Both of these are near and dear to my heart (which will be broken if they are voted down, but I've survived worse). I'm happy that no one submitted any rules concerning bribes from office candidates. That certainly would discourage many qualified managers from running for league offices. Of course, I certainly would not stoop to such tactics. Buying someone's vote is despicable, even if it works. Even if it gives a rookie manager an edge over trusted 10 and 15 year league vets. Even if it causes a 100% sweep at the poles. (Well, I guess if that happens, it's okay then. I mean, really, have all the managers in any Strat league ever been in 100% agreement on a voting issue?)

Now, come on, do nice guys ever win elections? Well, okay, I'll concede that if Jeff becomes Big AL, then nice guys can win once. But I'm right if Mike wins, because he has the Big Hurt, and having to pitch to him is not nice. And I lost every game to Ed this year, and that's not nice. Then there's me. I'm talking about who's not nice, and that's not nice. So, you see, a rookie manager can become Big AL.

Speaking of the Hogs, Ed asked for some ideas on new names for his team. How 'bout the Boston Ed's... not. The Cambridge Griffins? The Malden Mules?... not, someone will likely call Ed another name for a mule. How 'bout the Brockton Bullets?... no, too much like another team. Well, Ed, I guess you're on your own. I never was very good with names.

Since a politician never shows favoritism, I'll wish all the playoff teams good luck in their quest for the championship, and to enjoy it while you can since... a couple of years the Dragons will be #1. ("Confidence is sexy, don't you think?") As far as next year is concerned, I think the Dragons will do better, but you can bet on one thing: if I don't get to be Big AL this year, I'll be back. And don't think you'll get another baseball card bribe, because I don't know where they came from this year. Also, whoever sent out these bribes couldn't send one to Tris Coffin because he didn't know where the heck he lives. He has a phone number, but apparently he couldn't stuff a card through the phones without bending it all up. So if Tris' address could be published in a future newsletter then maybe a post-election bribe could be sent by that guy, whoever he is.

Be dropping in again soon!

Baton Rouge

Silver Bullets

Baton Rouge Notes

No doubt about it. I traded away my chance this year to make the playoffs. Giving up 2 number 1 picks and Jay Bulner to get Mussina had to cost me a few games. Mussina did not help much going 9-4 with a 4.55 ERA. Next year that move may not look so bad. Mussina will have about 280 innings of good starts. Starting pitching may keep the Bullets up with Florida's better hitting with Mussina, Fernandez, Rogers, Gordon, and Schilling seeing all the action.

Even with the disappointing finish, 1994 was by far the best offensive season ever for the Silver Bullets. Our 97 wins beats our previous high of 89 wins in 1990. No less than 16 offensive records were set by this 1994 team including the top 4 places in runs scored (Lofton 134, Baerga 118, Gant 117, Palmeiro 108) and the top 3 places in batting average (Eisenreich .362, Lofton .351, Baerga .341). There were 3 players with over 110 RBI on this team. Only 1 pitching record was set, most innings pitched by Fernandez. Next year the Bengal Dome will be getting a lot bigger in an effort to reduce some of those ball park homers and singles.

The Bullets are making progress. This team won on 51 games in 1991 and has improved to 75 wins in 1992, 83 wins in 1993 and now 97 wins in 1994. We have our sites set on our first 100 win season and a playoff appearance in 1995. All in all, thanks to everyone for making this an enjoyable season. A special thanks to Rob, Bob, and Dave for all their extra work.
