Dragon Drappings

Greetings from The Lair,

CHICAGO	12
HOUSTON	11
CHICAGO	3

The above line scores are included in my newsletter as an illustration. These games happened near the end of the 1995 season, and they kept the Cubs' playoff hopes alive, while at the same time frustrated the Astros' hopes when the wild card was within their grasp. I feel fairly certain that the Astros do not feel cheated, although their egos are probably somewhat damaged. But, these incredible victories did happen. Sometimes truth is stranger than fiction.

In the 28 years that I have been playing Strat, I, too, have had incredible victories and defeats, and many have been in the face-to-face and play-by-mail leagues that I've played in. When someone sends me an incredible victory I treat it for what it is... another mark in the loss column. I hope that someday when The Dragons have an incredible series against one of my Strat friends that my enjoyment of those victories is not spoiled by someone who felt that I must have been re-rolling the dice.

Now that I have written this, I want to say that I have no bone to pick w in this league (with my boss maybe, but not here). I enjoy participating with everyone in this league... you are all friends. I did, however, feel the need to address this issue. Being frustrated about being an absent minded professor with where to send league reports is peanuts compared to the absolute sadness I would feel if someone ever accused me of cheating.

Be dropping in again soon!

Game 2: Pedro Martinez Vs Steve Trachsel. Paul Molitor, a great late season pickup by the 89ERS, hits a Home Run in the 1st with 2, outs. In the second Shane Mack leads off with a double. Orlando Merced grounds out. But, Edgar Martinez and Chad Kreuter work walks to load the bases. Matt Mieske strikesout for the second out. Pedro Martinez continues his wildness as Knoblauch works a 2, out walk into an RBI. Farmington answers in the 3rd as they score their first run of the series after 14, shutout innings as Tim Salmon leads off with a single, Trachsel boots Todd Ziele's grounder for an error to put two men on with no outs. Delino Deshields then hits into a 6-4-3, doubleplay sending Salmon. Wil Cordero singles to put bobbles Jeff Conine's grounder scoring Salmon. Wil Cordero reaches down and runners on 1st and 2nd with Griffey at bat. Trachsel reaches down and gets Griffey on strikes. Score stays 2-1, 89ERS until the top of the 8th with one out Conine singles and Cordero popsout. So with two outs and Griffey coming to bat Bruno brings in Pat Gomez to face Junior. Gomez hits Griffey to bring Albert Belle up with the lead run now on first. Bruno goes to the bullpen for Cox. The strategy does not work as Belle hits one out of the park to give the Hawks a 4-2, lead. In the bottom of the

Baton Rouge Notes

Management is taking a hard look at some of the poor performers of 1995 leaving some folks very nervous for their jobs. The slackers are easy to spot...

Sheffield and Palmeiro, the number 4 and 5 hitters, did most of the stinking it up hitting almost 60 and 50 points below their averages, respectively. These were the guys that were supposed to drive in the runs but neither of them got even 90 RBI (nobody else did either). Sheffield at a sub-Mendoza home field average of .183 had the worst regular starter average in team history.

On a lighter note, the Bulls want to welcome the two new managers. Good luck to each of you on your entry draft. I'll be calling you when you get your teams selected - or you can give me a call. You probably have something I want. My 1st round pick is available for the right deal.

* -3 BP for overuse (LLOYD).
 score 3-1. The Hawks answer back with 2, outs in their half of the 5th. McGwire walks and Salmon hits one deep for a 2, run Homer. Score 3-2. In the 89ER 5th with two outs Martinez walks, McGriff singles and Shane Mack gets a two out double scoring Martinez. A great throw by Griffey Jr. nails McGriff at home as McGriff tried to score form first. Score 4-2. With 2, out in the 5th Key walks Cordero and Griffey singles to bring up Belle as the go ahead run. Bruno goes to the bullpen and brings in Todd Jones to face Belle. Belle hits it hard but its a lineout to Martinez at third. After the scare Allyn Street adds 2, more runs to their total in the sixth as Mieske hits his second solo shot of the game and with 2, outs and with Thompson on first after he was HBP, Knoblauch doubles to score another run. 89ERs go on to win 7-3.
